2003 BUDGET: WHAT IT MEANS FOR YOUR COMMUNITY CENTER

The City of Seattle anticipates bringing in $63 million less in revenues in 2003 than in 2002. This has resulted in almost $5 million of budget cuts in Seattle Parks and Recreation. One reduction in the 2003 budget the City Council adopted on November 18 will mean your community center will be open fewer hours per week.

Beginning January 2, 2003, basic operating hours for the center will be 1 p.m. to 9 p.m.. Each center will also be open an additional six hours (to be determined) on weekday mornings, and will continue to be open 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturdays in the fall, winter and spring. The center is available beyond these hours on a pre-arranged fee basis.

Adult Activities

T'ai Chi

JOY THROUGH MOVEMENT! T'ai Chi Chih's (pronounced "ty-chee-chuh") gentle movements reduce stress by relaxing and energizing body and mind. With practice students can improve balance and strength, increase focus, relieve joint and muscle pain, and experience a new peacefulness in their daily lives. It can be learned by all ages and most physical conditions (chair-seated as well.) Feel free to call Linda Robinson, accredited T'ai Chi Chih instructor, with questions or concerns: (206)634-0474 or email lkr0903@aol.com. If you are interested in this class, please call Ryan Nakanishi (206) 386-1921.

Modern Jazz Dance

Rediscover the lost art of dance: learn to manipulate gravity and momentum, ride invisible waves, and soar through space! We will begin slowly with exercises that strengthen the body and practice proper alignment, then build to spirally traveling steps, jumps and leaps. This class is based on combined principles of Limon, Darling and Graham Techniques of modern dance, as well as ballet, jazz, and this instructor's personal experience. My philosophy includes the belief that a proper dance class should leave you feeling simultaneously ecstatic and virtuous. Be unafraid!

Dress Required: Preferred attire is bodysuit and tights with bare feet or soft dance shoes. Sweatsuits and T-shirts can be worn for warm-up. Clothing must not impair movement. Absolutely no jeans.

Previous Experience: No previous experience necessary for the beginner level class. If you are interested in this class, please call Ryan Nakanishi (206) 386-1921.
